AndersElite. Finding people made easy.

You know better than anyone that finding skilled people to fill specialist roles in the resources and mining sector is tough right now. A recent industry survey revealed that only 7 percent of Mining Managers are dissatisfied with their current job and only 17 percent are looking to change employers in the next twelve months.

In this current climate, partner with AndersElite to achieve success in recruitment and project solutions.

AndersElite deliver specialised recruitment services to the resources and mining sector in Australia – and we've been operating in the worldwide recruitment marketplace for more than 25 years.

We find the right people to fill professional appointments throughout all stages of your project's lifecycle. Whether it be greenfields exploration, feasibility studies, engineering design, construction and project delivery, right through to commissioning, operations and maintenance.

How do we do it? We are well known and respected amongst candidates and potential candidates, which makes us the recruitment agency of choice for many. Plus our discrete and confidential approach sees candidates applying for positions we recruit in preference to vacancies advertised directly by resources and mining companies.

Avoid the strain and stress. Get projects back on track. Reap the benefits that come from a healthier bottom line. Get the right people, on site, right now – with thanks to AndersElite.

Our dedicated specialist consultants are available 24/7 on +617 3013 9500 for a confidential discussion about your current and future recruitment needs.
