

Rise above the rest

If success is important to you, then this business is for you.
It's the largest bakery in the area and has an established reputation for excellence.

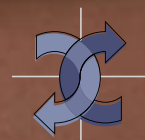

Business is drawn from over 50 regular daily clients, most of whom have wholesale needs, but some are served through the small retail shop in the CBD.

The business presently employs five full-time staff, including the owner, and four part-time staff, including the owner's wife. Staff are qualified, long-term employees who are keen to stay with the business and to continue to help it to prosper.

Located on the picturesque mid-north coast of New South Wales, the ownership of this business is ideally suited to a qualified baker who is ready to make a change for the better.
